On May 25 the Northeastern Library District held its annual meeting and luncheon at Trinity Parish House - 25 Librarians including the State Librarian, being present. To my knowledge this is the first meeting of Librarians ever held in Carbondale.

The meeting was enjoyed by City Officials teachers and friends of the Library.

The Library Association is much indebted to the Church officers for the free use of the Parish House.

In July the Kiwanis Club sponsored a luncheon meeting under the direction of Mr. Tegley, to assist our Annual Drive for
